Introduction to IEP Planning & Development

Individual Education Plan/Program development is core to provision of specialized services so that students diagnosed with a disability may access their free and appropriate education. Step by step components of the IEP will be discussed.

After completion of this workshop, participants should be able to:

- Identify the necessary forms required for the IEP,
- Locate the standards and indicators related to the IEP development process,
- Identify IEP team members,
- Estimate the timeline for IEP implementation and review, and
- Determine what preparations are required prior to an IEP meeting and IEP development.

Audience: General Education Teachers, Administrators, Counselors, Social Workers, as well as Special Education Professionals who may need a refresher.
